

PRESS RELEASE

Falconry in the Forest

There is an unbroken history of Falconry in the New Forest from its establishment in 1079 by William Conqueror right up to the present day.

Come to our drop-in session between 3-4pm on Sunday 23 August and meet a team of hunting birds at the New Forest Centre. Find out about the ancient art of Falconry with Paul Manning from Amews Falconry, who will be more than happy to answer your questions.

Paul, a falconer with more than 20 years experience, is also Chairman of the Wessex Falconry and Hampshire Hawking club. He owns and trains birds and also breeds falcons and cares for rescue birds.

This exciting drop-in session will take place inside the New Forest Museum Normal admission prices apply. There is no need to book.
