

INTRODUCTION

LYNDHURST

New Forest Heritage

- Who lived in my house before me?
- What did the Forest look like 100 years ago?
- Was there a local pub and shop?

New Forest Heritage will help answer these questions and many more by showing you how you can find out about the history of your neighbourhood. The project introduces you to typical library resources which are available at the Christopher Tower Reference Library in Lyndhurst. Indexes are on the internet.

The Collections

The Library collections contain over 6,000 printed works in additions to several hundred maps, many photographs, postcards and other illustrations.

An essential resource for:

Local and family historians, researchers and students - relating to all aspects of:

- * History
- * Archaeology
- * Art
- * Genealogy and family history
- * Topography
- * Natural History
- * Industrial archaeology
- * Commoning
- * Forest history

The Library is Open
Wednesday to Saturday
10.00am to 4.30pm

The New Forest Centre

is an independently run charity set up to provide an educational resource for the New Forest.

The Library offers:

- * A friendly welcome for all visitors
- * Expert advice
- * Superb research facilities for the New Forest
- * Microfiche and microfilm readers
- * On-line computer
- * Photocopying
- * Information by telephone, post or e-mail

